in this struggle for facts faults or fiction However you have my sympathy, Its not likely that your eyes are ~~not~~ as dim as mine, your mind clearer your hand steadier and your years less weightier I write but-where I try to read it- Will its just-something to do; No doubt- you will find the proof of this Statement where you try to discypher this letter to you with best-wishes I am as ever
